

LCT Summer School 2021

Our session leaders/docents

Dr. Ivana Kruijff-Korbayova

is a senior researcher and project leader at the German Research Center for Artificial Intelligence (DFKI) and has been the project manager of the LCT program since 2012.

Inga Lang

is an LCT student of intake 2019 and the current LCT student representative.

Dr. Ondřej Bojar

is a member of the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics at Charles University.

Gosse Minnema

is an alumnus of LCT intake 2017, a former LCT student representative, and is currently doing a PhD at the University of Groningen.

Cherry Kent

is an HR trainer and consultant based in Luxemburg.

Dr. Lucia Donatelli

is a postdoctoral researcher at Saarland University.

Dr. Philipp Wiegmann

is a psychotherapist and advisor at Saarland University.

Nathalie Rau

is a project coordinator at the KWT (Contact Point for Knowledge and Technology Transfer) of Saarland University is a lawyer, research associate at the Institute of European Media Law, and lecturer at Saarland University.

Sebastian Zeitzmann

Jürgen Schlicher

(Diversity Works) has worked for over 15 years in the areas of diversity management, non-discrimination, and interculturalisation.

Şeydâ Buurman-Kutsal

(Diversity Works) is a Europe wide known Expert in the field of Diversity and Inclusion and associate of Diversity Works. She has educated organisations like ministry's, Ngo's, police forces in Europe successfully. She has a background as a social worker with Turkish roots living in different European countries. At Fontys University of applied sciences in the Netherlands Şeydâ is teaching diversity and (civic) education.